

Some pupils had not turned up for detention.

As I only saw the pupils once a week I decided to e-mail their form tutor to remind them and also to reprimand them for misbehaving.

I used this form of communication as it was quick and efficient and involved the form tutor who clearly knows each individual pupil very well.